

October - December 2011

We have had a great 10th anniversary year so far with 4 international awards recognising the quality of our work. NIE finish the year in style with 3 new shows premiering in 3 countries and the launch of our new website (coming soon!)

ON TOUR

Tales from a Sea Journey / Hav (Sweden and UK)

After a very nice tour to Busig Festival in Sweden last week, our nautical award-winning show will tour to venues across the UK from the 14 November – 2 December.

Hansel & Gretel (UK)

Our co-production with The Junction, Cambridge will transform the theatre into a magical winter woodland for a delicious family show for the whole family to enjoy between 7 December – 3 January 2012.

Twist (Norway/Holland/Belgium)

A family show exploring ideas of responsibility, made in co-production with Kopergietery in Ghent. The show will open on the 16 December at the venue and play there until the 8 January 2012. Following on from the performances in Ghent, Twist will tour extensively across the 3 countries between 14 January – 2 March 2012.

IN DEVELOPMENT

Museum of Memories (Norway)

An intimate installation performance piece exploring true stories and accounts from people that have experienced suicide in the family. The project will be a movable installation that will both be an exhibition space and a space for the performance. We started the first steps of development on this performance in March 2011. Museum of Memories will open in April 2012.

Tales from the River Thames (UK)

Following on from the success in Peterborough of our site-specific show in Queensgate Shopping Centre last year, NIE are in co-production with The Unicorn Theatre in London on a storytelling show working with 8 Primary Schools as co-creators. Workshops in schools began in October and NIE will have further development with our ensemble rehearsing with the stories in January 2012.

WORKSHOPS

Actors Union (Norway)

Kjell Moberg and David Pagan will give a workshop on devising and music in Norsk Skuespillersenter, Oslo between 27 -29 October. Please click here for more information.

COMING SOON

North North North (Svalbard)

Alex Byrne and Kjell Moberg travelled over to Europe's most northerly permanent outpost in August to explore ideas for a new show about the peripheries of the continent. They will return in January 2012 for the next development phase with 3 other NIE ensemble members.
